RÉSUMÉ

ERICK NEAL. 1,78 m, 74 kg, né le 15 mars 1995 à Dallas (Texas). USA. Meneur de jeu.

Formé à University of Texas at Arlington (NCAA 1) entre 2014 et 2018. Il boucle sa dernière saison professionnelle sur une moyenne de 17 points, 4,3 rebonds et 6,7 passes pour 15,6 d'évaluation en 35 minutes, où il est le deuxième meilleur joueur statistique avec les Mavericks en 2017/2018. Avec ses 6,8 passes et 2 interceptions de moyenne, il termine meilleur passeur et intercepteur de la Sun Belt Conference 2017/2018. On le retrouve d'ailleurs dans le deuxième meilleur cinq de sa conférence en 2017/2018. Idem en 2016/2017 (meilleur passeur et dans le deuxième meilleur cinq de sa conférence), en 2015/2016 (meilleur passeur et membre du meilleur cinq de sa conférence). Au cours de ses quatre années à l'UTA, Neal a remporté de nombreuses distinctions et est devenu le premier joueur de l'histoire de la Sun Belt Conference à récolter plus de 1 500 points en carrière, 700 passes décisives, 400 rebonds et 200 interceptions.

Il lance sa carrière professionnelle en Turquie. Il signe à Yeni Mamak Spor Kulübü, un club de deuxième division turque. Pour la saison 2018/2019, il tourne à 16,4 points, 8 passes et 3,5 rebonds (et 4 balles perdues) pour 14 d'évaluation en 32 minutes. Avec ses 8 passes de moyenne, il termine meilleur passeur de la D2 turque 2018/2019.

Il reste en Turquie pour l'exercice 2019/2020, mais il change de club. On le retrouve à Lokman Hekim Fethiye Belediye Spor. Il hausse son niveau de jeu et tourne actuellement à 18 points (51 % à 2 points, 37 % à 3 points, 75 % aux LF), 9 passes, 5,5 rebonds et 2 interceptions pour 20 d'évaluation en 34 minutes. Un record à 34 points, 15 rebonds et 11 passes pour 40 (!) d'évaluation en 36 minutes en février dernier contre Bal?kesir. Parmi ses exploits, il a déjà réalisé 2 triple-doubles, ou encore distribué 17 (!) passes dans une rencontre. Il est le meilleur joueur de son équipe, classée à la première place de la deuxième division turque. Avec ses 9 passes de moyenne, il est le co-meilleur passeur du championnat avec Myles Mack.

Pour résumer, on peut dire qu'avec Marlain Veal, que nous vous avions présenté il y a quelques semaines, ils sont les deux meilleurs meneurs de jeu de moins de 25 ans de la D2 turque.

Erick Neal est un véritable « floor general » sur le terrain. C'est un meneur d'attaque rapide qui exerce une pression constante sur la défense. Il pousse le ballon à grande vitesse. Harcelant ses défenseurs. Lay-ups, spins, flotteurs, 3 points… son excellent toucher de balle fait de lui un redoutable attaquant. Il possède aussi un excellent contrôle de son corps. C'est enfin un passeur de haut niveau et un redoutable intercepteur. Sa polyvalence et sa vision du terrain sont un atout unique dans une équipe.

Le type de meneur de jeu US de petite taille qui ferait fureur en LNB. Les équipes françaises devraient cocher son nom. (Présenté le 16 mars 2020.)

SUMMARY

ERICK NEAL. 1.78 m, 74 kg, born March 15, 1995, in Dallas, Texas. USA. Point Guard.

He played at the University of Texas at Arlington (NCAA Division I) from 2014 to 2018. He finished his final college season averaging 17 points, 4.3 rebounds and 6.7 assists, with a 15.6 efficiency rating in 35 minutes per game, making him the second-best statistical player on the Mavericks in 2017/2018. With 6.8 assists and 2 steals per game, he finished as the leading assist provider and steals leader in the Sun Belt Conference in 2017/2018. He was also named to the Second Team All-Sun Belt Conference that season. The same was true in 2016/2017, when he was the conference's leading assist provider and was named to the Second Team All-Sun Belt. In 2015/2016, he was again the conference's leading assist provider and was named to the First Team All-Sun Belt. During his four years at UTA, Neal earned numerous honors and became the first player in Sun Belt Conference history to record more than 1,500 career points, 700 assists, 400 rebounds and 200 steals.

He began his professional career in Turkey, signing with Yeni Mamak Spor Kulübü, a Turkish second-division club. During the 2018/2019 season, he averaged 16.4 points, 8 assists and 3.5 rebounds (along with 4 turnovers) for a 14 efficiency rating in 32 minutes per game. With 8 assists per game, he finished as the leading assist provider in the Turkish second division in 2018/2019.

He remained in Turkey for the 2019/2020 season but changed clubs, joining Lokman Hekim Fethiye Belediye Spor. He raised his level of play and was averaging 18 points (51% from 2-point range, 37% from 3-point range, 75% from the free-throw line), 9 assists, 5.5 rebounds and 2 steals for a 20 efficiency rating in 34 minutes per game. He posted a career-high performance of 34 points, 15 rebounds and 11 assists for a 40 (!) efficiency rating in 36 minutes in February against Bal?kesir. Among his achievements, he had already recorded 2 triple-doubles, as well as dishing out 17 (!) assists in a single game. He was the best player on his team, which was sitting in first place in the Turkish second division. With 9 assists per game, he was tied as the leading assist provider in the league with Myles Mack.

To sum up, along with Marlain Veal, whom we presented a few weeks ago, they were the two best point guards under the age of 25 in the Turkish second division.

Erick Neal is a true “floor general” on the court. He is a fast-paced offensive point guard who constantly puts pressure on the defense. He pushes the ball at great speed, constantly harassing his defenders. Layups, spins, floaters, 3-pointers… his excellent touch around the ball makes him a dangerous offensive player. He also has excellent body control. Finally, he is a high-level passer and a dangerous interceptor. His versatility and court vision are a unique asset to any team.

He is exactly the type of undersized American point guard who could make a major impact in the French LNB. French teams should have him on their radar.
